For the purposes of this policy, personal information may include:

- (a) Name;
- (b) Address;
- (c) Nationality;
- (d) Residency status;
- (e) E-mail address;
- (f) Tax File Number; and

COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Collection of personal information

We may collect and hold personal information for the purposes of enabling us to provide financial services to you. For example, in order for us to provide personal advice to you, we are required to verify your identity and obtain information relating to your financial situation and your personal goals and objectives – this is so we can assess your personal situation and provide you with appropriate financial advice. This information is generally collected directly from you as our client.

Any personal information collected by us is solely for the purpose of providing services to its clients and will not be disclosed unless the disclosure is required in the performance of those services (for example, disclosing your information to a financial institution in order to place an investment on your behalf). Where we obtain sensitive information (e.g. racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious beliefs or affiliations or criminal record), we will only do so with your consent and where the collection of such information is reasonably necessary for us to perform our function. For example, we may also collect sensitive information (e.g. your health records) for the purposes of arranging insurance for you or assisting you with insurance claims.

We will only collect personal information by lawful and fair means. In general, we collect personal information about you from you unless you consent to the collection of your personal information from someone else or it is unreasonable or impracticable to do so. In some instances, we may collect this information through third parties such as your family members, people authorised by you or health professionals (e.g. in the case of income protection insurance).

Any personal information held by us may be held in a number of ways including via hard copy, soft copy or offsite on electronic servers. For example, we may collect personal information from you when you complete our client data form for the purposes of allowing us to provide you with financial advice or we assist you to acquire or dispose of a financial product (e.g. invest in a managed fund or rollover your superannuation).

Dealing with unsolicited personal information

If we receive unsolicited personal information, we will within a reasonable period after receiving the information, determine whether or not we could have collected the information under Australian Privacy Principle 3. If the information could not have been obtained under APP 3 we will take steps to destroy or de- identify the information as soon as practicable, if it is lawful and reasonable to do so.

At or before the time we collect personal information about you, or if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after, we will take reasonable steps to ensure you are aware of:

- (a) who we are and our details;
- (b) how we collect your personal information and whom from;

- (e) the main consequences (if any) if we do not collect all or some of the personal information;
- (f) any other person or body to whom we would disclose the personal information that we have collected;
- (g) information about how you may access the personal information held by us about you and how you may seek correction of such information;
- (h) how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how the entity will deal with such a complaint;
- (i) whether we are likely to disclose the personal information to overseas recipients (if so where).

Anonymity and pseudonymity

You may wish to deal with us anonymously, however, this is likely to limit the services we provide to you as our principal business relates to the provision of financial services (and in most cases, the provision of personal advice) which would require individuals to provide personal information. We are also required under Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) to conduct customer due diligence and appropriately identify clients.

If you don't provide us with the information we request

It is your choice as to whether you wish to provide us with the information we request. However, given the nature of our business, we may not be able to provide you with the financial services you require if you don't provide us with the relevant personal information to help us review your personal circumstances.

USE OR DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

If we collect personal information for a specific purpose (e.g. to provide financial services to you), we will not use or disclose the information for another purpose unless you consent to the use or disclosure of the information or an exception in the APPs applies.

Direct marketing

We may use and disclose your personal information to keep you informed about the range of financial products and services that we think may be relevant or of interest to you. You can opt out of receiving direct marketing information from us at any time by contacting us.

Disclosure of information overseas

From time to time, we may send your information overseas to our service providers or other third parties who operate or hold data outside Australia. Where we do this, we make sure that appropriate data handling and security arrangements are in place. We will also advise you of the countries where your data may be stored.

SECURITY AND ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You can ask us to correct any inaccurate information we hold or have provided to others by contacting us using the details in this policy. If the information that is corrected is information we have provided to others, you can ask us to notify them of the correction.

Security of personal information

We take care to protect the security of your personal information. We may hold your personal information in a combination of secure computer storage facilities, paper-based files and other formats. Vinarc Pty Ltd uses Integrity Connect, a Salesforce based tool to store data and therefore, client personal information may be stored on servers hosted outside of Australia.

For the purposes of maintaining and improving the functionality of Integrity Connect, Salesforce Certified Developers and Administrators have been engaged, who are located in the Philippines and United Arab Emirates. We take reasonable steps to protect personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or improper disclosure.

These include instructing our staff, contractors and financial advisers who handle personal information to respect the confidentiality of customer information and the privacy of individuals. There are rigid protocols in place with respect to the handling of client data overseas which include procuring a remote access set up which allows our Salesforce team to interact with the system only through our network, ensuring the team have no ability to access our system on their local machines, or download/export any data from outside of our system, full transparency of the user's digital footprint, detailed reporting from our IT partners and the use of dedicated IP's only.

Please note, we are required by law to retain your personal information for a specific amount of time. We will generally destroy or de-identify personal information if it is no longer required.

Access to and correction of personal information

You can contact us to access or correct any personal information we hold about you. However, in certain situations, we are permitted to refuse access to personal information. These situations include where:

- (a) giving access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals
- (b) giving access would be unlawful, or where denying access is required or authorised by an Australian law or a court order
- (c) giving access is likely to interfere with law enforcement activities.

For other situations, please consider Australian Privacy Principle 12.

If we receive a request to access personal information, we aim to respond to that request in a reasonable timeframe. In general, we will not impose an access charge unless the request of access and correct personal information is excessively onerous.

If we refuse access to personal information, we will provide you with reasons as to why access was refused and provide you with information on how to lodge a complaint about the refusal.

Data breach

A data breach occurs when personal information held by us is lost or subjected to unauthorised access, modification, disclosure, or other misuse or interference. Examples of a data breach are when a device containing personal information of clients is lost or stolen, or when a database containing personal information is hacked or if we mistakenly provide personal information to the wrong person.

Under the Privacy Amendment (Notifiable Data Breaches) Act 2017, we have an obligation to assess within 30 days whether a data breach amounts to an 'eligible data breach' if we become aware that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that data breach may have occurred.

If we form the view that the data breach would likely result in serious harm to any of the individuals to whom the information relates despite any remedial action taken by us, then the data breach will constitute an 'eligible data breach'. If an eligible data breach occurs, we have an obligation to notify you and the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner and of the details of the eligible data breach.
